New recruit in ESBS finance department

In April, the Strasbourg School of Engineering in Biotechnology (ESBS) welcomed Claude BOURHIS to the finance department. As financial manager, she is in charge of ordering materials for practical sessions at ESBS.

La Lettre de l'ESBS

She is also responsible of financial tracking, business trip organisation, budget monitoring, as well as managing internship allowance payments for the Strasbourg Institute of Medicine. We warmly welcome her and wish her success in her new role! ♥

Alumni Corner

A whole weekend dedicated to biotechnology ♥

From November 7th to 8th, ESBS, NGB and the alumni community will host the Biotech Weekend.

What is it exactly?

Biotech Day → November 7th at ESBS

ExA2Bio workshop with industry

On May 15th, ESBS hosted a dynamic workshop with industry partners as part of the award-winning ExA2Bio project. The session sparked discussions on training programs, evolving biotech skill needs and future directions. It marked a key moment to align visions, define goals, and shape the projet's roadmap. All eyes are now on the arrival of the ExA2Bio Project Manager in September 2025!
